Description

Constructed during 2020 this spacious family home with formal gardens, formed part of the original Mount Garrett estate stable block and has been preserved in part and then extended with new construction to the latest standards to create a home of impressive proportions. On the fringe of the ever popular village of Nidd. Ellacombe house is approached from double opening electric entrance gates with an impressive driveway that connects to the house. Planning permission has been granted for a three bay garage with living accommodation above.

The main house features a covered entrance from where there is a most impressive reception hall with a wide handmade staircase that forms the main feature of the approach together with the tiled floor which was sourced from Lapacida. There is a spacious guest cloakroom and separate Boot room store with fitted storage cupboards. On this level there is a spacious study as well as a garden room that has two sets of doors that open up onto an impressive patio/entertaining area.

The main feature of the ground floor is the 40 foot long living family kitchen that is sectioned into a delightful soft seating area with a feature recessed living flame in set gas flamed fire. There is both a dining area and a breakfast island that break up the kitchen which is hand built and features a bevelled stone worktop. The kitchen features a waste disposal, Quooker boiling tap, full Aga with an electric module that features a 4 ring gas hob. The Aga has been enamelled sprayed to match the good range of bespoke base cupboards and drawers from where there is an integrated coffee machine, as well as a wine cooler, dishwasher and Fisher and Pakel American style fridge freezer. Off the kitchen there is a beautifully fitted Butlers pantry and rear entrance lobby with storage cupboards, plus a guest cloakroom.

The hand built wide staircase leads to a spacious landing where there is natural light from a number of Velux windows. The master bedroom suite features a balcony which provides far-reaching views. There is a walk-in dressing room and a luxury ensuite shower room. The guest bedroom also features a balcony plus a walk-in dressing room and luxury ensuite shower room. A further bedroom (number three) features a luxury ensuite shower room and there is additionally a superb house bathroom with statement bath.

A door leads to the top floor which could easily create a self-contained suite. Currently offering a lounge area, bedroom with ensuite shower room and a utility room with hot water cylinder. This room could easily be converted into a dining kitchen giving independence for either a teenager or dependent relative.

Outside there is a spacious covered entertaining BBQ and pizza oven area, ideal for parties and all weather alfresco dining, either side of this area there is a useful workshop/store and kennel with dog run. Vegetable patch and greenhouse.

The property features mains electricity, borehole water which is metered plus a new septic tank that was installed in 2020 and a liquid petroleum gas central heating that was installed in 2020 that offers underfloor heating to the ground floor and radiators to the first and second floor.

Nidd is a beautiful location from where there is quick access to the villages of Ripley and Brearton both of which offer a public house. Beyond there is the market town of Knaresborough, Harrogate and cathedral city of Ripon, within easy reach of Leeds Bradford International Airport there are flights connecting the traveller to various worldwide destinations.
