Description

This well presented apartment offers the whole of the top floor of this stylish period Victorian property and is located on the corner of Cold Bath Road and Heywood Road.

With interesting character rooms there is an overall sense of light from both conventional windows and skylights.

The accommodation comprises in more detail from a common entrance, a private first floor entrance door with an attractive return staircase leading to a spacious central hall/landing. All the rooms are accessed off the landing the largest of which is a spacious lounge. There is a stylish modern dining kitchen with integrated appliances featuring a Kenwood dishwasher, extractor fans, four ring electric hob, fan assisted oven and a UPVC window set over a sink.

There are two spacious double bedrooms and a single bedroom that has previously been utilised as a study.

Additionally on the half landing there is a house shower room with hand wash basin, toilet and walk-in shower cubicle.

This well appointed apartment makes an ideal town centre home or investment for the buy to let market.

Harrogate is a popular term that features a good range of stylish bars, restaurants and shopping opportunities.

Nearby there is a Sainsbury's supermarket and pharmacy. Beyond there is the towns popular Valley Gardens, Pinewoods and Betty's tea rooms.

Harrogate has a good road and rail network offering the traveller and commuter quick access to Leeds, York and London.

AGENTS NOTES: Maintenance charges are 2/5ths of agreed cost which last year was £520 p/a for flat number 3. PETS ALLOWED AND SUB-LETTING ALLOWED
