Description

With a private parking area in front of the property, this 18th-century former coach house provides centrally heated accommodation with a new Viessman boiler heating three floors of accommodation.

The accommodation briefly comprises; a reception hall and an open plan living kitchen with underfloor heating, single oven, large induction hob, integrated dishwasher, space for an American fridge freezer, an island with breakfast bar, granite worktops, and a formal living kitchen with a spacious dining area where there is access to a delightful balcony that overlooks the gardens at the rear. There is also a separate study or fourth bedroom. On the first floor, the landing leads to the master bedroom with an ensuite shower room, two further bedrooms, and a house bathroom.

At the lower ground floor there is a large sitting room, utility room with toilet, and a conservatory that overlooks the rear gardens. There is also an external store which is under the ground floor which offers a large and useful storage area. The west-facing garden has well-stocked flowerbeds, a large lawn area, a patio and mature trees making the garden lovely and private.

A main feature of the property is the fact that it has both private parking and an enclosed private garden with a balcony located so close to the town centre. Subject to the necessary consent there are opportunities for further development including extension and alteration.
